

ANGEL DURANDEZ ADEVA

Born in Madrid, he holds a BA in Economics; he's Commerce Professor, Certified Public Accountant and founding member of the Register of Auditors Economists.

He joined Arthur Andersen in 1965 and became partner in 1976. He has been a member of the Andersen World Council Worldwide and director of its offices in Madrid and Barcelona.

From 1989 until August 2000, when he withdrew from that firm, Ángel Durández was the partner for Europe, responsible for the specialist group in the Communication and Entertainment industries.

He often takes part in conferences and press articles and he's a guest professor of the Master Programme in Management of Communication Businesses at University of Navarra and the Master of Communication at the Universidad Pontificia de Salamanca.

Besides being involved in various activities in the audiovisual sector, he's a member of the Advisory Council of FRIDE (Foundation for International Relations and Overseas Development), a member of the Advisory Board of the Fundación Germán Sánchez Ruipérez and Vice-Chairman of the Fundación Euroamérica, of which he was a founder in 1999 and CEO until March 2004.

In March 2004 he was appointed Chairman of INFORMACION Y CONTROL DE PUBLICACIONES, SA, an organization responsible for the control of the print and electronic media in Spain.

In July 2004 he was appointed Independent Director of Mediaset España Comunicación, S.A. and is currently the Chairman of the Audit and Compliance Committee.

Since 2007 he is an independent member of the Board of Directors of Repsol YPF, and member of their Audit Committee.