

HELENA REVOREDO

Born in Rosario, Argentina, she has a degree in Business Administration from the Catholic University of Buenos Aires and PADE at IESE.

Board Member of Prosegur Compañía de Seguridad, S.A since 1997 and President since 2004, President of the Prosegur Foundation since 1997, and also President of Euroforum since 2004.

Independent Board Member of Banco Popular Español since 2007; and Independent Board Member of Endesa since 2014.

She currently serves on the following Boards of Directors:

Consejera en Romercapital SICAV, S.A.; Proactinmo, S.L.; Gubel, S.L.; Prorevosa, S.L.; Hispaninver, S.L.; Agrocinegética San Huberto, S.L.; Euroforum Escorial, S.A.

She's also a member of the "Escuela Superior de Música Reina Sofía Patronage", The "Príncipe de Asturias" Foundation. She also collaborates with the Royal Association of Friends of the National Museum Center of Art Reina Sofía; the Friends of Prado Museum Foundation and the Royal Theatre Madrid; where she is also President of the International Board since 2015.

Her professional performance has been recognized with the John Lladó Award - the most prestigious award given in Spain in cultural patronage and research, the Gold Medal of the senior management Forum and the Ramón Borredá Trophy, as well as the Montblanc Prize for culture.